Observer.

BACK FROM THE COAST.—Surveyor General Hugh Price of this city has returned from a twenty days' visit to Los Angeles and San Francisco. He reports having had as good a time as possible in so short a stay in two cities where there is so much to be seen.

ARIZONA COTTON.—Mrs. M. E. Miller left with the secretary of the board of trade yesterday the stake of a cotton plant which grew in her yard in Simms addition. The end of the plant is decorated with a number of cotton bolls which seem to be of fine quality and size.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.—A warrant was issued yesterday afternoon by Justice Gray for the arrest of Martin Gonzalez, charged with assault and battery. The person attacked was J. M. Melendez and the incident occurred on Washington street, between First and Second.

A BUFFALO EXCURSION.—Another party of excursionists for Buffalo and other eastern points left this morning over the S. F. P. & P. railroad. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. William Pickrell, Dr. Ancl Martin, William Rice, W. E. Gehon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arney, Geo. Hamlin, C. J. Shephardson, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Walters and Mrs. M. E. Denny.

DROPPED OUT OF SIGHT.—Mr. T. E. Sloan says that the next day after the story announcing his encounter with a badger was printed the owner of the animal came into his office and told him that it had disappeared. Mr. Sloan sincerely hopes that whoever took the badger will return it, as its prolonged absence will eventually develop an ugly suspicion in which he may figure.

A CHALLENGE.—The Phoenix papers are claiming that the ball team of that city is looking for a game. If the manager of the team of that city will address a letter to V. R. Stiles of our city he will find what he is looking for, and a little more, too. The capital city scalp would make a nice addition to those now dangling to the Bisbee boys' belts.—Bisbee Review.

A BRIDE'S PRESENT.—On the occasion of a recent buggy ride to Tempe for the purpose of marrying a couple, Justice Gray noticed a shoe fly off his horse's foot. He always believes in doing the fair thing by his matrimonial clients and he at once assumed that the flying horseshoe was an auspicious sign for the future happiness of the couple. He therefore got out and picked up the horseshoe, has had it gilded and will send it to the bride with his compliments and best wishes.

ARNEY-PETTIGREW.—Mr. Charles Arney and Mrs. Minnie Lee Pettigrew, both of this city, were married at 7:30 last night at room 15, Commercial hotel. The ceremony was performed by Justice Burnett. Mr. Arney is connected with the territorial university. They left this morning on a wedding tour, which will include the Pan-American exposition.

POLICE COURT.—Thomas O'Neill was arrested Wednesday night at the Ambrose corner by Officer Lawrence charged with being drunk and disorderly. When the arrest was made another man interfered and tried to prevent the officer in the discharge of his duty. The recorder fined O'Neill ten dollars and imposed a fine of twenty-five dollars on the other man.

BACK FROM BUFFALO.—W. H. Robinson returned home yesterday from a business and pleasure trip along the great lakes, to Buffalo and to other eastern points. He had a pleasant outing and a good time in Buffalo, though he thinks Arizona's interests are considerably neglected at the exposition. Rather, he thinks too much prominence is given the wild west features and not enough is shown of her present civilized condition.

COAST EXCURSION.—The following is a list of passengers leaving last night via the M. & P. & S. R. V. R. R. for coast points: For San Diego—E. M. Skinner, J. Miller, Mrs. E. J. Bennett; for Long Beach—Dan Dell, Bronson, Creager, Mrs. Kincaid, Mike Kincaid, Mons Ellingson; for Santa Monica—J. P. Moore, Mrs. S. S. Green, Philip S. Wharton; for Los Angeles—Mrs. H. Wohler, Adele V. Wohler; for San Francisco—J. D. Marlar.

IRON SPRINGS ALL RIGHT.—Judge and Mrs. McCormick have returned from their outing at Iron Springs. The judge says the half has never been told regarding the beauties of that locality and its ideal surroundings for undisturbed rest. He calls attention to the pine trees, 150 feet high, which he says have not had their just deserts from the pens of the numerous descriptive writers that have from time to time attempted to paint that country in cold type. He thinks if Phoenix people were only fully aware of the pleasures of life in that resort they would never want to go anywhere else, either before or after they die.

NOTABLE VISITORS.—Mr. O. B. Blumer, who is recognized as the mayor of Argua Caliente, though the town is not yet incorporated, has been in the city several days purchasing supplies for his store, hotel and other business enterprises, and shaking hands with old friends and making new ones. He was accompanied by Frank Baxter, Chief Justice of the Steenth judicial district, who made his semi-occasional visit to Phoenix to confer with the board of supervisors and his many religious and political friends. Having completed their business and social duties they returned home on last night's train.

A HAPPY WEDDING.—The wedding of Mr. Lewis P. Yeager to Miss Annie Miller of which mention was made by the Republican yesterday was solemnized at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Winchester Miller, at Tempe on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Father Severin Westhoff officiating. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Yeager visited the Yeager ranch ten miles south of Tempe. They will spend a few days among friends in Phoenix and will then go to Flagstaff. They will later go to St. Johns, Mr. Yeager's headquarters at this season of the year.

TRIED TO WRECK A BANK.—If the Nicholson block had not been well constructed the Home Savings bank, one of the tenants of that building, would have been wrecked yesterday. Capt. Geo. D. Christy was driving a spirited animal down Commercial street toward Center and Col. Jerry Millay was riding with him. As they approached the crossing between the bank and the M. & P. office the horse started at a sign. Commercial street was not laid out with a view of encouraging the maneuvers of bronco horses attached to buggies and aside from the end of the street there was only one opening through which the horse could hope to escape and that was through the front door of the bank. It made the attempt, all right but the screen door is of the variety that needs pulling and not pushing, and the horse had nothing to pull with. Several gentlemen caught hold of the horse at once and he was unhitched and the harness readjusted after which he was hitched up again. There was no damage except to Col. Millay who felt hurt to think his partner would try to get him killed the first day after he returned home.

A STAG SUPPER.—Louis C. Melzer last night gave a stag supper to several of his friends, among whom were Charles Goldman, Aaron Goldberg, L. H. Landis, Geo. P. Bullard, G. H. N. Lohr, J. Wright, Geo. Gallagher, Ed Ruppert and James McElliott. The supper was prepared by a Japanese cook who turned his skill loose on plenty of material. There were also things to drink and there were speeches. Mr. Bullard, the toastmaster, committed the impropriety of looking a gift horse in the mouth by trying to ascertain Mr. Melzer's motive in giving the supper. Said he "I never knew you to give anything away for nothing. Now what do you want this time? Are you thinking of running for alderman or mayor next spring and is this your idea of opening the campaign?" Mr. Melzer said that he had no political ambition, that he had got tired of eating alone and had gotten up a supper at which he could have enough company to last him a long time. He thought now that he would not long for company for several moons. He said he had not chosen his guests with reference to his friendliness for them or his appreciation of their many excellent qualities. They were selected as those of more another master of a feast who sent out into the highways, byways and the shade of hedges and made a choice collection of crump, crumpled, large and blind persons. "Only," added Mr. Melzer, "I didn't have to compel them to come in."

THEODORE HAFNER, CONTRACTOR.—Theodore Hafner, who has been spending the summer in Los Angeles and at the nearby beaches, was among the passengers returning home on the train from the north yesterday. Mrs. Hafner will remain in Los Angeles a few days longer. Mr. Hafner says California is all right, but so is Arizona, and he is glad to get home again. Incidentally he related the circumstances of a short grading contract in which he was recently interested. When the train on which he was riding reached a little curve just beyond Iron Springs the engine ran into a small landslide and stopped. The landslide occurred at a place where the train is forced to run very slowly, and as the engine was giving close attention to his business it was brought to a standstill within a few feet. The dirt pile was but a couple of feet deep and perhaps twenty feet long, and when the train stopped the crew and a number of the passengers, including Mr. Hafner, grabbed shovels and went to work. In less than half an hour they had the track clear again and went on without further trouble. Mr. Hafner raised a few blisters, but when it was suggested that he put in a bill for his services he replied that he would not do so, as he is always willing to help his fellow capitalists when they get into a tight place.

PERSONAL MENTION.

BASE BALL CARNIVAL.

Iowa Falls, Iowa, Aug. 23.—A notable base ball carnival opened here today. Four star teams are the participants and the games to be played will determine the championship of Iowa, as it is conceded that no stronger or better base ball organizations are to be found in the state than the Port Dodge, Webster City, Manson and Algona teams. Captain A. C. Anson of Chicago has promised to umpire the games.
